

BARN RULES

Angels on Horseback Barn Rules are designed to create and maintain a clean, safe and fun environment for people and horses. Working with horses is a high risk activity. The following rules must be adhered to at all times by participants, volunteers and anyone who visits Angels on Horseback.

- ♦ All paperwork MUST be completed and submitted in order to ride at Angels on Horseback. This includes riders, volunteers, board members, etc. No Exceptions!
- ♦ No horseplay in the barn or around the barn. This includes running, shouting, throwing projectiles, waving objects, wrestling, fighting and chasing.
- ♦ All riders must use a ASTM-SEI approved helmet while mounted, or doing ground work, and use safety stirrups or wear hard-soled shoes with heels.
- ♦ No riding inside the Barn Aisle.
- ♦ No one is permitted in the barn, or in the adjacent paddocks and pastures, unless an AOH trained volunteer is present.
- ♦ No one is permitted in the Stall areas unless accompanied by an Instructor or having received prior consent from the Director.
- ♦ Absolutely NO smoking or open flames is permitted in the barn, or anywhere on the Angels premises.
- ♦ No one is allowed to handle program horses, feed or pet horses, unless supervised by a trained volunteer.
- ♦ No hand feeding anything to the horses. No Treats allowed, we feel it makes the horses mouthy and pushy.
- ♦ Barn aisles must be kept clean and free of obstructions.
- ♦ If you get it out, please put it away!
- ♦ In case of Fire, please proceed to the far side of the parking lot, getting far away from the fire, and fire trucks. Staff will locate and use fire extinguishers if needed.
- ♦ In case of Severe Weather, such as Tornado Warnings, Earthquake, etc where immediate shelter is needed, please go the Tack Room.
